

LaGrippe is Contagious.

Atmosphere Impregnated with Germs

Disease Proved Beyond Question to be Infectious--In Rapidly Conquering the Country.

LaGrippe is a contagious disease. Its specific germ has been positively identified, and it is transmitted from person to person either by direct contact or by inhaling the germs while they float in the air. It is a dangerous disease, lowering the vitality and wasting the restive power so that pneumonia, heart disease, nervous prostration and insanity find easy victims. No specific is known that will kill the grip germ, but it may be driven out and its effects overcome by the prompt use of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine.

"La Grippe left my nervous system so racked and shattered that I could not sleep and for two months was under the influence of narcotics. My physicians and friends gave me up to die; but in two days after I commenced taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine I began to improve, and in a month's time I was entirely cured. It is the greatest best restorative on earth."

JUDGE DAY SPEAKS

CANTON BAR ASSOCIATION

Tenders the Peace Commissioner a Banquet--Was No "Stand and Deliver" Policy--Not One Foot of American Soil Under Spanish Domination--Entangling Alliances.

Canton, O., Jan. 3.—Judge William R. Day, president of the peace commission at Paris and late secretary of state, received a welcome home last evening which took the form of a banquet at the Barnett House given by the Stark County Bar association.

Hon. W. A. Lynch, who was Judge Day's law partner in their younger days, was master of the ceremonies. Judge George E. Baldwin, one of the oldest practitioners at the local bar and a very intimate friend of the guest of honor, delivered the welcoming address to which Judge Day responded. Judge Day paid a high tribute to the legal fraternity of Stark county, closing with an eloquent reference to President McKinley, a member of the association, and reciting his devotion to the country during the war and the incidents leading thereto. He then spoke as follows of the matters which took himself and colleagues to Paris:

"If I were called upon to state the most gratifying circumstance of our foreign relations during the war, it would be found in the informal, cordial and hearty friendship of the English nation before and during the struggle. Observing the obligations of neutrality and never stepping outside the requirements of international law, we had the sympathy and good will of that great power. I don't believe either nation seeks or would be benefitted by a formal alliance. Nevertheless, the existence of cordial relations between people, kindred by blood, speaking the same language and having the same ideals of civil liberty and good government, is a fact that the potency of which can hardly be overestimated. I have been asked about the work of the commissioners viewed from a lawyer's standpoint. I think I may say something to you about it.

"On the 12th of August the protocol of Washington was executed. It may be said to have been the preliminary contract whose final execution was to be embodied in the treaty.

"As to Cuba, Porto Rico, minor West Indian islands and an island in the Ladros, it was capable of execution by a simple deed of cession as to these islands except Cuba where final relinquishment of Spanish sovereignty was required.

"As to the Philippine islands their disposition, government and control was left for final determination in the treaty. I have often been asked how it was possible to make progress in a commission having equal representation from the two nations.

"Whilst this fact did not prevent the fullest discussion, the United States, having made all the concessions which it believed just and fair, was obliged to insist that its terms be accepted. The publications of the proceedings will show that nothing can be further from the truth than to assume that the United States adopted toward Spain a policy of 'stand and deliver.'

"The American commissioners heard with respect and endeavor to answer, with firmness every proposition advanced by the Spanish commission. For better, for worse, the work of the commissioners is done.

"It cannot be a matter of regret to any American that the rising sun of the new year beholds the ensign of our glorious republic floating from the walls of Morro, where for so many years the royal banner of Spain has looked down and often added to this digestive function are out of order; these two conditions cause nearly all the headaches from which women suffer.

"What Headaches Mean." The dreadful headaches which women suffer from are not merely a passing ailment, but a sign of a deeper trouble. There is probably some unhealthy condition of the delicate organism of womanhood which has caused these headaches.

There are two great remedies specially adapted to these ailments invented by the chief consulting physician of the famous Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute of Buffalo, N. Y., Dr. R. V. Pierce. His world-renowned "Favorite Prescription" is the most successful medicine ever known for the cure of distinctly feminine ailments and his "Golden Medical Discovery" is the one supremely effective cure for digestive difficulties. Taken in conjunction they completely rejuvenate the nervous system of weak and debilitated women; giving health, strength and capacity to the nerve-centers; renewed power to the blood-making glands and energetic force to the entire body. Mrs. W. T. Stanton, of Blissfield, writes: "I had female weakness very bad for nearly three years. Had dragging down pains in and above my hips and such dreadful pains in the back and top of my head (just as though someone was lifting me by the hair). Had no ambition, would try to work a few days then would have to lie in bed for a long time. No tongue can express the suffering I endured. I felt much pain at monthly periods. I doctored most of the time with as good a physician as there is in the state, but had no case only when I was quiet and my face when I had more or less pain in my head. When I began taking Dr. Pierce's medicine I weighed 120 pounds, and was very pale and weak. I took twelve bottles of the 'Favorite Prescription' and seven of the 'Golden Medical Discovery.' Now I feel like a different person. Have no pain in my head, can do all my work for self, husband and one child, am gaining in flesh. I feel it is through God's mercy and your wonderful medicines that I am cured."

Where constipated conditions exist Dr. Pierce's mild and agreeable "Pleasant Pellets" should be occasionally used in conjunction with the "Favorite Prescription."

upon so much of corruption, misery and shame. Tonight not one foot of American soil remains under Spanish domination, and the people so long oppressed are to have a new birth of freedom.

"This is not the time nor place to discuss our policy in the far east. If this treaty should be ratified, it brings to the United States title to the archipelago to be dealt with as the American people in their wisdom may see fit. In one thing I think we are all agreed, that, when the line of our duty there has been determined, it must be discharged as becomes a great free and liberty loving nation.

"Whether or no, we have so willed, the days of our international isolation are past. It does not follow that the advice of the immortal Washington to avoid entangling alliances is less potent today than when the words were written.

"The American citizen has a right to go wherever trade and enterprise may legitimately seek an outlet for the product of American thrift and industry and there must follow, if need be, the overshadowing protection of the flag."

SENATOR TURPIE

Recovering From an Attack of Pneumonia, but is Very Sick.

Washington, Jan. 3.—Senator Turpie of Indiana is recovering from an attack of pneumonia, but for several days has been able to sit up. It is not at all likely he will go to the capitol for at least two weeks, as his recent illness has weakened him to such an extent that he will be in danger of a relapse unless he receives the very best care.

Ex-Governor Campbell.

New York, Jan. 3.—Ex-Governor James E. Campbell of Ohio, who has been confined to his room in a hotel in this city for several days from illness, is reported to be much improved. His physician said he believed the ex-governor to be out of danger.

PRESIDENT'S RECEPTION

Great Throng of New Year Callers Paid Their Respects.

Washington, Jan. 3.—President and Mrs. McKinley received the season's greetings yesterday from the great throng of callers representing every branch of public life, who attended the white house reception. It was the first time since the present administration began that circumstances permitted the observance of this custom, and this, as well as the happy and propitious circumstances under which the year began, added to the interest and enjoyment surrounding the event.

In the receiving line with the president and Mrs. McKinley were the members of the cabinet and the cabinet ladies, while back of the line stood many ladies from the army, navy, congressional and judicial circles. Among the most notable figures in the line of callers were the foreign ambassadors and ministers, in their rich diplomatic uniforms. Officers of the army and navy also were in full uniform, giving a brilliancy and dash to the occasion.

LATE SENATOR MORRILL

Bodies of Himself and Wife Arrive at Montpelier on Same Train.

Montpelier, Vt., Jan. 3.—The body of the late United States Senator Justin Smith Morrill arrived here yesterday from Washington. On the train which brought the body to Montpelier was also the body of the senator's wife, who died at the capital several months ago. In the funeral party were the delegations of representatives from congress and senators appointed to attend the obsequies here and a number of personal friends of the late senator.

Emblems of mourning were everywhere visible in Montpelier. Flags, bearing emblems, floated at half-mast throughout the city. The funeral services in representative hall were largely attended. Men from all parts of the state came to pay final respects to the memory of the late senator. President M. H. Buckham of the University of Vermont delivered the eulogy.

FAST WORK

Oriental Mail Passes Through Chicago on Time.

Chicago, Jan. 3.—The oriental mail, which by the new schedule of the post-office department is to cross the continent in 13 hours less time than was occupied by the trains under the old system, passed through Chicago last evening on time. At exactly 8:38 o'clock, two minutes ahead of the schedule, the Lake Shore fast mail drew into the station at Van Buren street.

Eighteen wagons were waiting on the curb, and in 15 minutes they were all loaded and on their way to the union depot. Forty-five minutes from the time the Lake Shore train drew into Chicago the pouches were in the Burlington train.

FIGHTING LABORERS

Hand-to-Hand Battle Between a Day and Night Force.

Ashland, Neb., Jan. 3.—Several men were seriously injured at the Ashland Co.'s ice plant at Memphis yesterday in a clash between strikers and men on duty. Eighty members of the night force struck for increased wages and when the day force refused to join the strike a vicious hand-to-hand fight resulted. An unknown striker from Lincoln was struck on the head and is reported fatally injured. The attacking party was defeated and several of the men have been arrested.

Wants a Coaling Station.

Madrid, Jan. 3.—Official circles here are warmly discussing the attitude of Great Britain, owing to her pressing demands that Spain sell her a coaling station in the Balearic islands and other strategic points, so as to render Gibraltar unassailable. The negotiations on the subject have been in abeyance owing to the lack of funds.

BRONCHITIS

Bronchitis is very prevalent. It generally begins with a common cold, attended with cough, hoarseness, soreness of the lungs, tightness of the chest and difficulty in breathing. If not cured, it becomes dangerous—thousands die from bronchitis annually. Dr. John W. Bull's Cough Syrup is the best remedy for this disease; it relieves the cough at once, eases expectoration, and cures in a few days.

Toledo, Jan. 3.—City Clerk Lem P. Harris is in receipt of a letter from Admiral Dewey, who was invited to be the guest of honor to open the Ohio centennial on May 1, 1903. The admiral expresses his thanks for the honor and says that while it is impossible for him at present to make any definite answer, it would give him much pleasure should circumstances at that time render it possible to accept the invitation.

Dingley Improving.

Washington, Jan. 3.—The slight improvement in the condition of Representative Dingley of Maine noted continued last night and his family are hopeful that the change for the better is permanent. One of the attending physicians said he believed the patient now had a chance to recover. His condition, however, remains critical.

SANTIAGO IS EXCITED

Over an Order Directing All Customs Receipts Sent to Havana.

PUBLIC MEETINGS CALLED

To Protest to Washington Against Carrying Out of the Order—Would Cause Great Injury at Present. General Wood Annoyed, as It Will Stop Improvements.

Santiago de Cuba, Jan. 3.—An order has been received from Havana, which, if enforced, will mean, in the judgment of the commercial classes here, serious injury to the province. This is a direction to transmit the entire customs receipts each week to Havana. Compliance with such instructions would involve the abandonment of many necessary public improvements, especially in the matter of roads and water works.

Since the American occupation began these funds have been used for such purposes, and have been the principal means of meeting the necessary expenditures. The Herald says that to carry out this order would throw 10,000 Cubans out of employment, most of whom would probably take to the hills and become bandits, having no other resource. Robert T. Mason, British consul at Santiago, says it was Spain's practice of monetary centralization which caused most of her troubles in Cuba.

General Leonard Wood, United States military governor of the department, on being asked to express an opinion respecting the order, declined to be interviewed, but it is reported that, without offering any criticism of the policy which dictates the order, he has shown his annoyance at the possibility of a stop being put to the good work being done in the province. The local taxation fund is barely sufficient to meet the expenses of the city. There is nothing over for important improvements; and the customs receipts are considered by competent judges to be absolutely necessary for the successful management of the province.

Popular excitement over the order is growing among all classes. The chamber of commerce, the Sons of Veterans, the supreme court and the San Carlos club have called meetings to take action, and each organization will cable to Washington an earnest protest against what is described as the "suicidal policy of centralizing money at Havana."

MAXIMO GOMEZ

London, Jan. 3.—The Havana correspondent of The Times, referring to the refusal of General Maximo Gomez to surrender his arms until an independent government is granted, says: "I believe that the influence of General Gomez with the rebels is completely ended."

The Times prints a letter this morning from a "distinguished American naval officer," giving an interesting account of the situation in Havana and expressing sincere pity for "the many gallant Spanish officers." He describes the "fatalistic resignation" of the Spaniards and the riots resulting from the dismissal of the Spanish police without pay.

Commenting editorially upon the foregoing letter, its correspondent's opinion and the transfer of sovereignty in Cuba from Spain to the United States, The Times says: "Such a transfer was the best thing that could have happened to the Cubans. For their own sakes it is to be hoped that their political education will be rapid and complete, since it is certain that the Americans will not tolerate the impotence of law which a long and demoralizing struggle has engendered."

Regarding the nonpayment of the police, The Times says: "A bankrupt generally manages to pay his servants' wages. The completeness of the Spanish downfall is more fully brought home to us by these squalid domestic tragedies than by the greater events of the war."

CUBAN REBELS

Assert That They Will Not Disband Until Paid by the United States.

Havana, Jan. 3.—The continuance of the Cubans in arms is the most puzzling question connected with the administration of the island. The negotiations for the payment of the soldiers are to be conducted from Washington, so as to be Major General Brooke of this difficulty. For the present the Cuban commanders are holding their men closely together and under discipline. General Davis, military governor of the department of Pinar del Rio, has gone into the matter fully with General Mario Menocal and other Cuban commanders. They say that they expect the United States to pay them and that they will not disband until they get an answer.

The majority of military observers here seem to think that probably the easiest way out is to make the payment, taking a mortgage on the revenues of Cuba in the form of bonds.

There are probably 35,000 men able to work, but now sponging on the country. If paid off on condition that their arms were surrendered they would have no excuse for not working. The United States military authorities do not look with favor upon the notion of forcible disarmament.

Captain Thompson of the Second Illinois regiment, Captain Robertson of the First North Carolina regiment, Lieutenant Shuey of the Second Illinois regiment and Lieutenants Reynolds and Jackson of the One Hundred and Sixty-first Indiana regiment began duty yesterday as police inspectors.

HEROIC ACT

Lee Chalfant, by Quick Action, Saves Five Hundred Lives.

Columbus, Jan. 3.—It is not often that it falls to the part of a stationary engineer to play the part of a hero, but that is what happened to Lee Chalfant, substitute engineer at Wolf Bros.' shoe factory yesterday. Though badly scalded he leaped through blinding clouds of steam, raked the fires from under the boilers and prevented an explosion that jeopardized the lives of 500 employees in the building.

Chalfant was working as a substitute and noticed there was too much water in the boiler and so opened a valve to let some of it out. Then he went around in front to watch the gauge while the water ran into the well. He soon saw that the water was going out too fast and that a jet of steam was escaping with great force. In trying to shut it off he was badly scalded, but in spite of the pain he thought only of the horrible consequence of an explosion.

There was but one thing to do and that was done quickly. He sprang to the furnace and began raking out the fire. The boiler cooled down and the danger point was passed. Then Chalfant gave the alarm. He was taken to his home, where he lies in a precarious condition.

THE OLDEST WOMAN

In the World Lives in Philadelphia. Was Born In 1770.

Philadelphia, Jan. 3.—A woman whose claim to being the oldest woman in the world is undisputed is Mrs. Mary McDonald, who is now an inmate of the Home for Aged and Infirm Colored People in this city. She has celebrated her 129th New Year's day, and from present indications it will not be her last. Mrs. McDonald was born on Nov. 14, 1770, and remembers the skirmishes with the British that were fought across the farm at Valley Forge, where she was raised. Mary was not a slave, but was bound out until she was 18 years of age to a wealthy farmer named Reese Howell. She has smoked tobacco as long as she can remember. She married when she reached 18, and was blessed with a family of eight children. All of her sons and daughters, as well as her husband, have long since died, and Mary is now the only one left.

Mrs. Marx-Aveling's Suicide.

London, Jan. 3.—Some remarkable facts have developed regarding the suicide of Mrs. Marx-Aveling last March. It appears that she learned that Dr. Aveling, the English socialist leader, with whom she had lived a number of years had secretly married a young lady. He admitted that this was true and intimated that he was tired of her, whereupon Mrs. Aveling said the best thing she could do was to commit suicide. Dr. Aveling, it further appears, allowed her to send to a drugstore for poison, and went out walking while she drank it. The public prosecutor would have taken action in the matter but for Dr. Aveling's sudden death on Aug. 4 last.

Increasing In Numbers.

Boston, Jan. 3.—At a meeting of the anti-imperialist league yesterday, it was reported that the direct protest against any extension of the sovereignty of the United States over the Philippine islands are coming in through the league in increasing numbers from all parts of the union. Mr. Erving Winslow, secretary of the league, will visit Washington this week to interview several senators who have expressed a desire for a conference.

Struck by a Train.

Utica, N. Y., Jan. 3.—Miss Thomas, aged 18, and Calvin Chamberlain, aged 19 years, who were riding with five other young people in a survey last night were fatally injured by an Ontario and Western train striking their vehicle at a crossing near Lathams' Corners. The young people were singing as they approached the track and did not hear the approaching train.

Dreyfus Was Turned Back.

London, Jan. 3.—The Paris correspondent of The Daily Chronicle says he learns that Dreyfus actually started for France, but that he was taken back to his prison island in consequence of the representations made by the

Priceless Pain

"If a price can be placed on pain, 'Mother's Friend' is worth its weight in gold as an alleviator. My wife suffered more in ten minutes with it than with any other medicine she had used. It is a blessing to any one expecting to become a mother," says a customer.

Thus writes Henderson Dale, Druggist, of Carmi, Ill., to the Bradfield Regulator Company, of Atlanta, Ga., the proprietors and manufacturers of "Mother's Friend." This successful remedy is not one of the many internal medicines advertised to do unreasonable things, but a scientifically prepared liniment especially effective in adding strength and elasticity to those parts of woman's organism which bear the severest strains of childbirth.

The liniment may be used at any and all times during pregnancy up to the very hour of confinement. The earlier it is begun, and the longer used, the more perfect will be the result, but it has been used during the last month only with great benefit and success.

It not only shortens labor and lessens the pain attending it, but greatly diminishes the danger to life of both mother and child, and leaves the mother in a condition more favorable to speedy recovery.

"Mother's Friend" is sold by druggists at $1.00, or sent by express on receipt of price.

MOVING OUR OFFICE.

In a day or two the REPUBLICAN will be doing business in the Schneck room between Beckman's and Harding's. We are moving today and hope to have all our presses in place tomorrow. There will be no irregularity in the issue of the paper in the meantime.

The legislature convenes Thursday. Just now interest centers in the senatorial contest, but the selection of a senator is not the most important duty the legislature has before it. That is important, but they have other duties to perform for the people whom they represent.

The year 1898 was one of general prosperity. The industrial conditions throughout the country are much more satisfactory than they were a year ago or two years ago. The agricultural classes have had less to say about hard times the past two years than for a number of years previous. Labor has been better employed and better paid. All are agreed that there has been an advance all along the line touching every class of people. We look into the immediate past with a feeling of satisfaction, we look forward and into the future with confidence, hoping and believing that 1899 will bring new opportunities as well as new duties to our people. The outlook for the new year is one of encouragement.

The attitude of the township trustees' association against the movement to bring about better business methods in the administration of township affairs has not been to their credit. They are now offering explanations in an effort to set themselves right before the people, but the resolutions adopted puts those trustees present and voting for it on record. We do not believe that all the township trustees in Indiana are opposed to the reform proposed, nor do we believe that they feel offended because they were not the first advised with. They may not think all the provisions in the reform measure the wisest, but they stand ready to give counsel and correct any errors in it before it is presented to the legislature.

Brakeman Frank Cook was last even tag promoted to conductor.

THE SENATORIAL CONTEST.

Fifty Seymour Republicans Express Their Preference.

Today a representative of the REPUBLICANS called on fifty-four republicans promiscuously and asked them to express their preferences between the candidates for United States Senator. The result showed that all the candidates have friends here and is as follows:

Posey.....	12
Taylor.....	9
Beveridge.....	19
Hanly.....	7
No choice.....	6

The REPUBLICAN would be glad to get expression from as many more to-morrow.

B. R. T. Ball.

The annual ball of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen at Society Hall last night was a very pleasant social event. Quite a large number of the railroad people were present and joined in the festivities of the occasion. The hall was beautifully and appropriately decorated and the arrangements were characteristic of the precision of railroad men. The music was furnished by Burdick's orchestra and was first class. The occasion was in every way a delightful one and the railroad boys are deserving of the congratulations they are receiving.

Asked to Sit as Special Judge.

Hon. O. H. Montgomery has been asked by Judge Martin, of the Lawrence circuit, to sit as special judge during the trial of an important case the latter part of this month. Owing to his own professional duties and the approach of the February term of court in this county Mr. Montgomery has declined the invitation.

Change of Firm.

W. H. Reynolds has taken charge of the Attkisson Grocery Company's store which he recently purchased. Mr. Attkisson, the senior member of the old firm, will assist Mr. Reynolds in getting acquainted with the trade. George Attkisson will assist in settling up the business of the old firm, before engaging in other business. Success to both the outgoing and incoming firms.

Week of Prayer.

The meeting at the Presbyterian church last night was not largely attended but was full of interest and profit. The discourse of Rev. J. M. Baxter on "Confessing" was listened to attentively by all present. The meeting tonight will be at the Christian church and will be in charge of Rev. J. T. Charlton. The house should be filled.

Fine Cigars to Burn.

W. F. Peter, the druggist, is deserving of the large cigar trade he has established. He has a large variety of the leading brands of fine cigars and his customers know it. Truly, he has fine cigars to burn.

Trying a Dead Man.

It is probably an unusual thing in any country for a court to sit in judgment on the dead, but in a Berlin letter to the Chicago Record an account is given of a trial in which the accused was a dead man.

It was not his first trial. That had taken place in his lifetime, and its result had been a sentence of imprisonment for 18 months. The delinquent was bureau clerk in the tax office of Schweidnitz, Silesia, and it was proved that he had embezzled funds and forged documents. Soon after his sentence, however, he showed signs of unsettled reason, and at length died a maniac.

His widow, anxious to clear his memory from the stain that rested upon it, had the case reopened and proved by expert testimony that her husband had been demented at the time he committed the crime.

Thus occurred the peculiar circumstance of a dead man on trial. The trial resulted in the reversal of the former sentence, the court pronouncing the deceased not guilty.

A young English girl, at a reception given to a number of literary lions, remarked to one of them, after a survey of the collection, "How very odd that the better they write the uglier they are!"

Evansville, Ind., Jan. 3.—Minor Garrett, Ed Gardner, Elijah Scott, Frank Carl and William Morris, boys ranging in age from 10 to 13 years, were given a public whipping in police court here.

The boys had stolen old wash boilers. The parents were told by Judge Winfrey that they could either whip the boys or have them sent to the reform school. The whipping was preferred and the boys were led to the hall by the turnkey and given 25 lashes each. Their yells could be heard two blocks away.

One of the boys was so weak after the flogging that he could hardly walk from the police station.

TERM OF OFFICE

Suit to Determine the Length of Service of a County Treasurer.

Goshen, Ind., Jan. 3.—Suit was yesterday brought to determine the length of service of County Treasurer Weaver, appointed by the commissioners to fill out the unexpired term of W. H. Holderman, removed for embezzlement. Holderman's term would have expired Jan. 1, 1899, but in March following his installation in 1897 the legislature extended the terms. Israel O. Wood was elected treasurer last November and Mr. Weaver had arranged to vacate on Saturday last, but the bondsman served notice that a judicial ruling would be required to determine whether or not Weaver's time does not really extend to Jan. 1, 1900. Mr. Weaver is content to retire at once if the court so elects.

Surprised.

Last Saturday evening about 7 o'clock some fifteen young people went to the home of Misses Cora and May Love south of the city and informed them that they had come to watch the old year out and the new year in. The evening was spent in music and social games. The Love and Brown orchestra rendered some fine music during the evening. Refreshments were served and everything went merry as a marriage bell. At five minutes of 12 o'clock Miss Mary Dahlenburg took her place at the organ and all sang "Rock of Ages." At twelve o'clock every one sang "God Be With You Till We Meet Again." Then the crowd left telling Misses Cora and May to be on the watch at the close of the year 1899. There were several present from Seymour.

A. L. B.

It is not true, one now learns, that the Prince of Wales is the leader of fashion. The heir apparent, in fact, is not allowed to be aggressive enough to be a leader. One of the proofs that he does not lead fashion is that he wears a silk hat with a sack coat. It also proves that he does not follow the fashion. The real swells who do set the male fashions once resolved to make an innovation during Ascot week. Sporting men were dressing in light clothes and white hats, whereupon all the men in the swim appeared in black hats, black frock coats and dark trousers. For some reason the prince had not been notified of this change, and was caught in the paddock in a snuff colored suit.—London Tit-Bits.

His Record.

The famous John Randolph of Roanoke, as he was called in his day, once met, while walking on a narrow pavement, a political opponent of his.

The man pushed rudely against Mr. Randolph with his elbow, saying as he did so, "I never make way for second dregs."

"I do," said John Randolph, stepping to one side and making his most courtly bow, as he allowed the man to pass.—"Cyclopedia of Anecdotes."

LaGrippe Successfully Treated.

"I have just recovered from the second attack of a gripe this year," says Mr. Jas. A. Jones, publisher of the Leader, Mexia, Texas. "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I think with considerable success, only being in bed a little over two days against ten days for the former attack. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of this remedy as I had to go to bed in about six hours after being 'struck' with it, while in the first case I was able to attend to business about two days before getting 'down.'" For sale by C. W. Milbous.

To the Public,

We are authorized to guarantee every bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be as represented and if not satisfactory after two thirds of the contents have been used, we'll refund the money to the purchaser. How to Prevent Pneumonia.

You are perhaps aware that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of la grippe. During the epidemic of la grippe a few years ago when so many cases resulted in pneumonia, it was observed that the attack was never followed by that disease when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was used. It counteracts any tendency of a cold or la grippe to result in that dangerous disease. It is the best remedy in the world for bad colds and la grippe. Every bottle warranted. For sale by C. W. Milbous.

THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS

It is impossible to promise particular features that will appear in the "AMERICAN MONTHLY" during the coming year, for it is, as the Bookman says, "a great monthly newspaper." As such, it prints for its readers an illustrated account of the notable things which make the history of the month, of the political, the economic, and literary happenings which are of value to intelligent men and women. The Editor's "Progress of the World" tells succinctly an illustrated story of the month. The "Leading Articles" give the best thought and information of the current magazines in five continents; the contributed articles furnish the character sketches of the man of the month, and give timely discussions by authorities on any question of immediate serious import.

The result of this comprehensive effort to edit in one monthly volume the information needed by intelligent people of "live" instincts is best gauged in the opinions which the readers of the AMERICAN MONTHLY have seen fit to express. These are thinking business men, clergymen, editors, lawyers, professors, engineers, the wide-awake women of America. They write that the AMERICAN MONTHLY "is indispensable"; "is simply invaluable"; "is a generous library in itself"; "is a historical cyclopedia of the world"; "the best means of aid for a busy man"; "the best periodical of the kind we have ever had"; "a triumph of editorial genius"; "the world under a field-glass," etc., etc.

In Olden Times
People overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action; but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently overcome habitual constipation, well-informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system. Buy the genuine, made by the California Fig Syrup Co.

Let the Effort Be Made.
If the proper effort is made during the next two or three days it is our belief that the next meeting of the State Sunday School Convention can be secured for Seymour. The meeting will unquestionably be held in the southern part of the State and there is no better or more convenient place to hold it than here. Why not unite in extending an invitation to have it come to Seymour? It will be a help to our city in many ways. Columbus wants the meeting there, but Seymour has advantages over Columbus that the Sunday school board will not overlook. Let our people unite in extending a hearty and generous invitation, and let us do it at once.
Deafness Cannot Be Cured
By local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars; free.

DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP CURES all throat troubles. Why wear out your throat by incessant coughing, when this reliable remedy can be bought for only 25 cents a bottle?

Suffering humanity should be supplied with every means possible for its relief. It is with pleasure we publish the following: "This is to certify that I was a terrible sufferer from Yellow Jaundice for over six months, and was treated by some of the best physicians in our city and all to no avail. I now take great pleasure in recommending them to any person suffering from this terrible malady. I am gratefully yours, M. A. Hogarty, Lexington, Ky." Sold by W. F. Peter, Druggist.

Who is to Blame?

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys.

If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, and it is yet afflicted with bed wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

If the adult has rheumatism; pain or dull ache in the back; if the water passes in irregular quantities; or at irregular intervals or has a bad odor; if it stains the linen or vessel the color of rust; if the feet swell; if there are puffy or dark circles under the eyes; your kidneys are the cause and need doctoring. Treatment of some diseases may be delayed without danger, not so with kidney disease.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy promptly cures the most distressing cases. Its mild and extraordinary effect is soon realized. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet telling all about it sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention that you read this generous offer in the Seymour REPUBLICAN.

OUR JAWS NEED EXERCISE.

Lack of Mastication Causes Dyspepsia and Teeth Troubles.

Mastication is rapidly becoming a lost art, and, although we have become hardened to the fact that three-fourths of the dyspepsia is due to this cause, it might surprise some of us to know that the early decay of the teeth and diseases of the gums are occasioned by this same lack of masticatory exercise.

A disease of the gums, called Riggs' disease, which is every day becoming more common, is caused almost entirely by the want of proper mastication. Twenty-five years ago this trouble was not considered of any importance by the dentist on account of its rare occurrence.

Today it is given more care than the decay of the teeth, as he is frequently consulted by patients who have a full set of natural teeth which are quite loose in the jaw. Aside from this they are sound and healthy, and after a certain development in the disease nothing can be done to help them.

By lack of exercise the blood which should nourish both the bones and the gums is not carried to the part, nor does the blood carry sufficient material to the teeth; hence the enamel formed is defective, and early decay results. Frequently, too, the mechanical development of the jaw is arrested by this same want of motion.

Most of the food among the better class of people today is cooked so as to require very little mastication, and the consequence is that the muscles have become flabby, the jaws slender and the processes for the attachment of the muscles almost obliterated.—Boston Globe.

Obedience of Orders.

A naval commander in the reign of Queen Anne was ordered to cruise with a squadron within certain limits on the coast of Spain. Having received information that a Spanish fleet was in Vigo beyond his limits, he resolved to risk his personal responsibility for the good of his country. He accordingly attacked and defeated the Spanish fleet with uncommon gallantry. When he joined the admiral under whom he served, he was ordered under arrest, and was asked, if he did not know that by the articles of war he was liable to be shot for disobedience of orders.

He replied with great composure that he was very sensible that he was, but added, "The man who is afraid to risk his life in any way when the good of his country requires it is unworthy of a command in her majesty's service."—Nuggets.

A HEROIC HISTORY.

The Stormy Career of the Little Island of Crete.

There are not many islands with a more stormy or more heroic history than that of Crete. In remote antiquity it was the redoubtable "island of one hundred cities" and had an illustrious line of kings, among who were Rhadamanthus, Minos and Idomenus. The last named led a fleet of 80 ships to assist in the conquest of Troy and was the last of what we may call the legendary kings. After him a gap of several centuries occurs, and when the record is resumed it is no longer fable, but authentic history.

At the time of the Persian invasion of Greece the island was populous and prosperous. It was divided into several independent republics, which, like those of peninsular Hellas, were not always in peace and friendship with each other. They kept free from foreign wars, however, except as they voluntarily furnished mercenary troops to whichever side would pay the best for them. This was done in both the Persian and Peloponnesian wars, when the Cretan archers were as noted and as dreaded as those of merry England in later days.

The prowess of the ancient Cretans and their insular position kept them free from invasion down almost to the Christian era. While the eagles of Rome "flapped wide wings in fiery flight" over nearly all else of the known world that island retained its independence. Indeed it was only through intestine quarrels that it was at last subdued. Some 70 years before the Christian era Rome took advantage of the prevailing discord in Crete to invade the island, on the pretext that the Cretans had given aid and comfort to Mithridates and had ill treated some Roman soldiers. The first army was repulsed and almost annihilated by the Cretans.

But Rome was determined to achieve the conquest if it took the whole power of her empire. Army after army was sent, and after three years of desperate fighting Rome prevailed. For the first time in her history Crete became, in 68 B. C., subject to an alien master. From that day to the present, for more than 1900 years, she has been a conquered province, never once regaining the independence so long maintained and so reluctantly relinquished.—New York Tribune.

London as It Was in the Earliest Days of Its Existence.

We first hear of London in any important sense as a city of Roman Britain. The incoming of the Saxon conquerors is followed by nearly 200 years of unbroken silence, and it is this long period which has caused some historians to assume, rather than prove, that Roman London had altogether ceased to exist. But when the light of history is again shed upon this part of the newly made England there is much to show that London had, to a large extent, preserved her independence as a place of commerce and civic organization. The Saxon settlements appear all round her, and perhaps the little village of Charing, within a mile of her walls, affords the most significant testimony to the Saxon settlements round London rather than in London.

The Saxon conquerors appear as political masters of London and introduced into her municipal life the folkmoet, which originally met in the open air on a piece of land near Paul's Cross and which is perhaps represented by the Common hall of the citizens of London of the present day; many Teutonic customs which lie imbedded in the municipal usages of medieval times, many Democratic innovations in municipal institutions which appear throughout the early years of Plantagenet rule, when the "common people" over and over again asserted their right to take part in the municipal elections and transactions of the day. But both the settlements round London and the political lordship over London do not appear to have made London a Saxon city and its municipal institutions of Saxon origin. The lex mercatoria of Roman London seems never to have quite died out.

In the court of the merchants there were always professional lawyers, and perhaps the most remarkable survival of Roman institutions in Britain is the practice of the old order of sergeants at law, who assembled in the nave of the old St. Paul's cathedral, each sergeant having been allotted a special pillar in the cathedral at his appointment, where he met his clients in legal consultation, hearing the facts of the case, taking notes of the evidence or pacing up and down. This is the exact parallel to the assembling of the Roman jurisperiti at early morn in the forum to consult with their clients and cannot be explained except by the theory of direct continuance of practice from Roman times.—Contemporary Review.

Half Witted, but Level Headed.

No one near Crab Orchard, Ky., knew how old or how young Zeke Morse was 80 years ago. Old men claimed that he looked just the same and acted just the same when they were boys. Some old men have lied, even in Kentucky, but it would not be prudent to say so in their hearing down there.

Zeke Morse was half witted, and unlike most men in that fix he confessed it, which probably should be taken as an argument against the charge. One day old Dr. Breckinridge of Center college, Danville, and father of a well known congressman, overtook Zeke Morse, and rising in his cab said:

"Zeke, why do you want to live?"
"I hain't nevah sed I keerd much to live," replied Zeke, pushing back his patch of a felt hat and looking into the doctor's small, gray eyes.

"Zeke," said the doctor, "as you don't care about living, I'll give you $1,000 if you'll let me kill you."

"See here, doc," said Zeke as he scratched his mop of red hair, "don't folks say I'm half witted?"

"I believe you do, Zeke."

"Well sah, on dah then sarcomstances I'll let you half kill me fo' half the money."—New York World.

Two Potted Questions Answered.
What is the use of making articles better than your competitor if you can not get a better price for it?
Ans.—As there is no difference in the price the public will buy only the better so that while our profits may be smaller on a single sale they will be much greater in the aggregate.
How can you get the public to know you make it?
If both articles are brought prominently before the public both are certain to be tried and the public will very quickly pass judgement on them and use only the better one.
This explains the large sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The people have been using it for years and have found that it can always be depended upon. They may occasionally take up with some fashionable novelty put forth with exaggerated claims, but are certain to return to the one remedy that they know to be reliable, and for coughs, cold and croup there is nothing equal to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For sale by C. W. Milhous.

Who are injured by the use of coffee. Recently there has been placed in all grocery stores a new preparation called GRAIN-O made of pure grains, that takes the place of coffee. The most delicate stomach receives it without distress, and but few can tell it from coffee. It does not cost over 1/2 as much. Children may drink it without great benefit. 15c and 25c. per package. Try it. Ask for GRAIN-O.

Mr. Hardin Norris, clerk of the drug store of R. Shumaker, Perry, Ill., says: "A man came into our store the day and said, 'I want a bottle of that stuff that saves children's lives. I read in the News about it. The children may be sick when we can not get the doctor enough. It's the medicine you sell for croup.'" He alluded to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and bought a bottle before he left the store. For sale by W. Milhous.
